BOARD POLICY　　　　　　REGARDING: Uniform Treatment of Recruiters

Number: 2010
　　　Administration

Approved: 11/13/02
Revised:　6/13/07

Subject to the provisions of law, all recruiters, including commercial, military and nonmilitary concerns and recruiters representing institutions of higher education, shall be provided the same directory information concerning, and shall be given equal opportunities of access to, students enrolled in the district's high school[s]. Access may be granted through programs conducted by the Guidance Department. Such programs may consist of career days, college fairs, individual school visitations, in-school recruiting.

Except as provided below, military recruiters and institutions of higher education shall, upon request, be given access to the names, addresses and telephone numbers of secondary school students.

On an annual basis, the school district will notify parents of secondary school students of their right to object to the disclosure of the student's name, address and telephone number to military recruiters or to an institution of higher education. If a secondary school student or the parent of a secondary school student objects in writing to the disclosure of a student's name, address, or telephone number to a military recruiter or an institution of higher education, then the district shall not disclose the student's name, address or telephone number to a military recruiter or an institution of higher education. The objection shall remain in force until the district re-issues the annual notification referenced above, after which time the parents and/or secondary school student must inform the school district in writing again of their objection to the disclosure of the information described above.
